Thank You to everyone who in any way helped to organise our parish celebration of Christmas this year. To the volunteers who cleaned and sanitised the church, those who erected and decorated the crib, the ladies who arranged flowers, stewards, readers, ministers of Holy Communion, singers and musicians, to all who assisted with preparing and distributing tickets for Masses.

May the Blessings of the Christmas Season bring joy, hope and peace to all. We continue to pray for an end to the pandemic and for all who could not travel home to be with family & loved ones.
