Today is the feast of St James the Apostle, patron of our parish. James is believed to be the first of the apostles martyred. Tradition holds that James brought the Gospel to Spain. For centuries, the scallop shell of St James, typically found on the sea coast in Galicia, northern Spain, has been the symbol of the Camino de Santiago, and its pilgrims. Pilgrims returned to their countries of origin wearing the scallop concha shell over their habit or hat to demonstrate that they had reached Santiago and its famous gothic cathedral. According to tradition, when the remains of St James were originally unearthed, it was said to be covered in scallop shells.

Today is Patron Offering Day for the support of the priest.

Offering Envelopes can be placed in the collection box in the centre of the church or in the letter box at Parochial House.

Offertory Collection in line with public health advice, the collection baskets are no longer passed among the congregation at offertory time. Parishioners may financially support the parish by making a contribution in the white buckets located at the entrances to the church. You can contribute as you enter or as you leave the church. Thank you for your support.

Online Donations: via the parish website athboyparish.ie

Drive-in Bingo: in aid of parish funds today at 3pm in Convent Grounds. Great prizes to be won!

Pope Francis has established World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, which takes place today for the first time. The Holy Father reminds us that grandparents and elders have a mission to encourage young people on their faith journey. “How important grandparents are for family life, for passing on the human and religious heritage which is so essential for each and every society! How important it is to have intergenerational exchanges and dialogue, especially within the context of the family.” Pope Francis
