Feast of All Saints: Saturday 1st November

"we celebrate our brothers and sisters who have welcomed the light of God in their hearts and have passed it on to the world, each according to his or her own hue." Pope Francis

Holyday of Obligation Mass: 10am Saturday

Commemoration of All Souls: Sunday 2nd November

"November is a time for remembering and praying for our loved ones who have gone before us in the hope of Resurrection. It is a time when we are particularly conscious of those in our parishes who are grieving and all those families who have lost loved ones in the past year. We invite the faithful to unite in prayer throughout the month of November in remembrance of our dead."

Irish Bishops Conference

Annual Remembrance Mass: for parishioners who have died in the past year and for the comfort of their families, will be offered Saturday 8th November, at 6.15pm. Please join in remembering your own deceased family members and friends during this time of prayer, music and reflection.

Mission Sunday 2025: Thank you for your generous contributions last weekend, to supporting the work of the missions.

List of the Dead: an envelope and list was distributed to every home in the parish during September, additional envelopes are available at the box beside the ambo in Athboy Church. Please return your completed list no later than Friday this week, to the Parochial House or to the box in Athboy Church. On All Souls Day (next Sunday) and First Fridays during the year, Masses are offered for the names on the Parish List of the Dead.

"For your faithful people, Lord, life is changed not ended and when our earthly dwelling comes to an end, an eternal dwelling is made for them in heaven."
